This map provides a detailed view of the Hebden Bridge area in West Yorkshire. The central part of the map is dominated by a large green area labeled 'Upper Marsh', which is a nature reserve. To the north, the 'Staden Beck' flows through the landscape. A network of roads, including 'Sun Lane', 'Cemetery Road', and 'Hebden Bridge Road', connects various parts of the area. To the east, the town of 'Oxenhope' is visible, with roads like 'Station Road' and 'Best Lane'. The 'Leesshaw Reservoir' is located to the west. The map also shows a railway line running through the area and several parking areas marked with 'P'. The overall layout shows a mix of natural green spaces and built-up areas.
